Farewell to an Angel

By Liz Briand

Goodbye, stranger in the dark,
To you I sing my solemn song.
To the skies in perfect rhyme,
Through the angel's sparkling eyes,
My words will reach your dwelling place.
Listen to them closely, angel,
Don't let their tune fade in the clouds,
Listen, so I can hear you.
Sweet is your voice, dancing like stars:
Amid the open sky, I can hear you again.
Take my goodbye under your wing,
Let it soar with you everywhere
So that you won't lose my echo
Up there with your invisible eyes.
Look for me, my angel,
In the clouds and in the sea,
So that I will not miss your smile
When I come to fly with thee.

In Loving Memory Of
Adam Paul Carey

*As you light up the world's stages,
 just as you've lit up our lives, remember this:*

You may not always shine

As you go barefoot over stone

You might be long together

Or you might walk alone

And you won't find that love comes easy

But that love is always right

So even when the dark clouds gather

You will be the light

BHS FALL PLAY RHINOCEROUS

Principal's Message

William L. Foye

June 2002

To Our Seniors,

Certainly, the terrorist attacks this past September will complicate the world you enter. These are times of fear and tension, but Beverly High School has a long tradition of preparing students to respond to traumatic times. Since the founding of the school in 1858, graduates have gone off to the Civil War, faced the Great Depression, and won two world wars. You are part of a great tradition, and you will use your skills to overcome the latest crisis for our great nation.

This is a time in which we need brightness. It is fortunate and timely that your class is so talented. No class in my six years at Beverly High School has displayed such academic power. Class rank, for example, is more complex this year because so many students are tightly placed at the high end of the G.P.A. scale. Our goal has been to make you strong thinkers, which will prepare you for the next phase of your life, and we have reached our goal. What could be better than to have a class that cares so much and openly practices community service? There are strengths in this class that are strong enough and enthusiastic enough to brighten the problems we face.

I thank you for all you have done for Beverly High School. I wish you well, and look forward to hearing and reading about your accomplishments.

BEVERLY NATIONAL BANK

BEVERLY HIGH SCHOOL BRANCH

We wish to congratulate our graduating "student bankers" who participated in the Bank's High School Banking Program this year.

The BEVERLY NATIONAL BANK in partnership with Beverly High School operates a High School Bank which is staffed by these students after they have completed a full semester course on Fundamentals of Banking & Finance. The course is taught by high school faculty and the School Bank is supervised by one of the Bank's Managers. The goal of this program is to provide a "real world" experience for the students, while furnishing them with training and a skill they can use after graduation.

Yearbook Tribute to Lewis Lattanzi

Mr. Lewis Lattanzi has "done it all" for Beverly High School students: from physical education/health and wellness teacher, coach of tennis and boys' gymnastics teams, director of system-wide health programs, assistant principal—Mr. Lattanzi has invested 110% of his devotion and skill into every aspect of life at BHS. Yet, his concern and nurture extend beyond the student body; he is always one of the first persons to offer sympathy, a helping hand, unconditional support and assistance to any colleague who has suffered a loss or a reversal of fortune. "We're all just here to help each other." When Mr. Lattanzi utters these words, he totally personifies them as well. We shall always be grateful for Mr. Lattanzi's expenditure of his time, his vast professionalism and his kindness to all of us at BHS. May he continue to pursue his passions for creating art, constructing various household projects and designing garden landscapes after his shining career in education.

Yearbook Tribute to Theo M. Pothier

Mrs. Theo Pothier has graced BHS students with her presence for the past 34 years. As a member of the English Department, she has provided strong preparation and instruction in composition and literature to scores of students during their freshman and sophomore years. Her gentle voice and manner, her nurturing instincts, and her sincere love for and devotion to her many students are qualities which her professional colleagues have tried to emulate and which we shall miss. We are so grateful and honored to have known Mrs. Pothier throughout our time at BHS. May she transmit her pleasant nature and wonderful good humor into the next phase of her life!

Yearbook Tribute to William D. Hamor

Beverly's own John Updike says in one of his best-known novels, RABBIT RUN, "He was a dynamic coach—every boy should know and have such a coach." Mr. Hamor has spent 32 years as a physical education/health and wellness teacher—as well as an ice hockey and football coach. (A Beverly native, he also attended and graduated from Beverly High School.) In the field house or in the classroom, Mr. Hamor always has taught with the voice of authority, great patience, and keen concern for and awareness of each student. On the football field, Mr. Hamor has become one of the most honored and respected coaches in the NEC—not only because of the number of winning teams that he has coached, but also because of the life-lessons of loyalty, determination and perseverance which he has imparted to all of his players. They shall never forget what they learned through Mr. Hamor's tutelage.

Francis de Salles, in his prototype of the complete man, described Mr. Hamor exactly: "the truly strong man is quite gentle; the very gentle man is always strong." May appreciative companionship, beautiful seas and heavenly sunsets fill your years ahead, Coach.

Yearbook Tribute to Suzanne Nicolo

"The perfect woman, nobly planned—
To warn, to comfort and command."

The words of William Wordsworth resonate and capture the spirit and personality of Mrs. Suzanne Nicolo. For several years, she has instructed Advanced Placement English students, as well as other college-bound seniors. No one who has ever been enrolled in her courses will ever forget the venerable Bede, any nuance or valley of Scotland—or Seamus Heaney! Mrs. Nicolo's brisk, directed lectures, her insistence upon scholarly thinking as well as scholarly behavior, her utter enjoyment of her subject-matter are all such marvelous professional attributes—too soon to leave our halls at Beverly High School.
